

VIII. RESULTS

This part of the report is presented in four sections that correspond with the street locations that were selected for improvement during this project. As stated above, these locations are identified as Eden, Pollock, Cross-Pollock and George streets. Each section includes a description of the mechanical excavations, followed by a description of the stratigraphy and features that were revealed during the construction phase of this project.